Peabody Business Makes Impact on National Music Industry

Peabody MA, April 26, 2007: Doug Ruffin, president of GiGCREATOR a Peabody-based company, had a significant impact on the 2007 Winter Music Conference in Miami Florida. Ruffin made national connections within the music industry by transitioning his former web site, RealDanceFM, an exclusive site for the dance music genre to GiGCREATOR, a new improved web site that serves the hiring needs of industry professionals in many genres of music. State Rep Ted Speliotis said, "Doug's work exemplifies the determination and resiliency of so many small business owners who have switched careers mid-life to make a better life for themselves and for their communities."

Ruffin was a strong participant at the WMC as the moderator of the Networking panel. Doug Ruffin promoted the Peabody based business by sharing the title billing of a recording artist showcase with Deet Promotions, at TWIST in Miami -- that event was heard around the world through the internet.
